Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that several pilgrams have of late arrived here from Tripatti and while en route, or shortly after their arrival, have been seized with Cholera - It has therefore been deemed advisable to build a shed at Krishnarajpuram so that all people arriving from Tripatti may be examined and if found to be affected with the disease kept there under treatment - This was done some years ago.

2. It may be found necessary hereafter to detain all passengers from Tripatti under quarantine there for some days

The

3. The President of the Municipality Civil and Military Station has agreed to bear half the cost of the shed which will be less than 200 Rs: and the Senior Surgeon will depute an Hospital Assistant with medicines to attend to those who have to be detained there -

4. I would request the favor of sanction being accorded to these steps and also to my debiting Local Funds with one fourth of the cost the remainder being paid by the City Municipality -
